

AGIC China (Shanghai) 22 March 2018 Sheraton Grand Shanghai Pudong Hotel & Residence
8.30am Arrival tea & coffee
9.00am-10.00am	MC: Peter Murphy Partner HFW Opening Graeme Meehan, Australian Consul General, Shanghai Pat O'Shannassy CEO Grain Trade Australia: Australian grain industry value proposition
10.00am-10.30am	Trends and outlook in the milling sector Professor Li Dongsen Chairman Golden Grain International: China Flour Milling Industry - Australian Wheat for Noodle flour
10.30-11.00am Morning tea
11.00am – 12.30pm	Australian grain – supply chain innovation and integrity Hannah Janson NZX: The Australian production system Luke Mathews Trade & Economics Manager, Grain Growers Limited: Innovation in varieties and quality: farm to customer Pat O'Shannassy CEO Grain Trade Australia: Industry Management Plan
12.30-1.30pm Lunch
1.30pm – 3.00pm	Australian grains - opportunity in China Tim Walker Consultant AEGIC: Value of Australian feed grains - application in poultry rations Matthew Pattison Trader COFCO International Australia: Australian sorghum – opportunity for China TBC: Oilseeds (TBA)
3.00-3.30pm Afternoon tea
3.30pm – 5.00pm	Australian supply chain Andrew Vroland Glencore Grain: Australian supply chain performance Followed by facilitated panel session with Australian exporters and industry experts Facilitator Andrew Young Director Plumgrove
5.00pm-6.30pm -	Networking opportunity